

The Square Dance Quiz – Part 3

Read this first.

The following exercise is designed for your personal enjoyment and to keep square dancing active in your mind. There are no prizes and no rewards for correct answers and absolutely no penalty for incorrect answers. This exercise is in no way meant to create any stress or put any pressure on any individual.

Your answers are for you only and not to be sent back to us. The correct responses will be sent to you in a couple of days, and you yourself are the only one who can see how you did.

There is no obligation to complete this quiz or to even try it. It is completely voluntary. This quiz has three parts which will be released once a week over the next three weeks. The answers will be published two days after the quiz has gone out.

Mary and I do hope you enjoy it, but again, it is only presented for your own information.

Have Fun & Good Luck,

Dave
